

ARC Asia Pacific Futures Research Network UPDATE Japan-Korea Node

Japan Studies

Workshop Opportunity for Postgraduate/Early Career Researchers (applications closing 14 Aug 09)

The Japan–Korea Node of the Asia Pacific Futures Research Network (APFRN) is organising a Postgraduate/ECR workshop in conjunction with its network project titled “Japan: Descending Asian Giant?”

Applications are invited from PhD and ECRs researching contemporary Japan for a fully funded place (airfare and accommodation in Adelaide) to attend this workshop being held at the University of Adelaide between Monday 23rd & Tuesday 24th November 2009.

Successful participants will have the opportunity to:

- listen to papers presented by invited speakers
- participate in and contribute to discussion
- network with all workshop participants including invited scholars

Prospective applicants should provide the following information:

- Brief CV
- Letter of support from Supervisor
- Current research and future plan (1/2 page)
- Statement of workshop expectations (1/2page)

10 PhD students/ECRs from interstate are likely to be selected.

Please email your application to Professor Purnendra Jain at purnendra.jain@adelaide.edu.au

Closing date for applications: Friday, 14 August 2009.

More about the workshop:

10–15 speakers from Australia, Asia, Europe and the US will discuss aspects of contemporary Japanese economy, politics, society, demography and international relations.

Workshop Chair and facilitator: Professor J. A. A. Stockwin, University of Oxford.

ARC Asia Pacific Futures Research Network
JAPAN & KOREA